Philosophy of the Chinmaya Mission Bala Vihar:

To Help Children Learn
Values with Fun
To Delight like the Moon
And Shine like the Sun

- Swami Chinmayananda once said “Children are not vessels to be filled, but lamps to be lit.” The goal of Bala Vihar is to “wake up the sleeping giant” in our children and inspire them to reach their maximum potential by following the values expounded by saints and sages.

Parental Involvement:

- At least one parent must be present at the Bala Vihar location during the session.
- Parents are expected to attend the adult study group.
- If parent is unable to attend a particular session, guardianship must be assigned to another adult and the Bala Vihar teacher/coordinator must be notified in advance.

Bala Vihar Student’s Responsibilities:

- All students are expected to be in their classes at the specified time
- Regularity and punctuality in attendance is required. Attendance record will be maintained.
- Bala Vihar teachers or coordinator must be informed of any planned/unplanned absences.
- Class text/workbook will have to be purchased separately.
- Students are expected to be disciplined and behave respectfully towards their teachers, other adults and fellow students.
- Chew Gum/Toys/Electronic Games/Playing with Cell Phones are not allowed in Bala Vihar.
- I understand the philosophy of Chinmaya Mission Gwinnett Bala Vihar program
- I understand the rules of the Chinmaya Mission Gwinnett Bala Vihar and agree to abide by them and ensure that they are followed by my child(ren).
